

Annabelle Bearden Bath Products

Every once in a while we are faced with obstacles and heartaches that create new directions in ones life. We each have a story of mended wounds. Few are unable or unwilling to share. Faith, as an encouraging leader, led Annabelle Bearden to author a book that gives hope and encouragement to others. He Remembered Me, In Everyday Life Miracles Happen... is a diary of events and emotions whose hope is to share joy and peace within your heart. Growing up in a broken home, overcoming grief of losing a child and surviving breast cancer this journey that Annabelle shares is not so much about her, but about her faith that showed her the way to healing. The footsteps during her walk of life further evolved into a desire to do something wonderful and nourishing for ladies. In 1994, Annabelle's vision and dream became a reality. Annabelle Bearden Bath Products was born out of love and passion to fulfill and share the most intimate moments while pampering the soul. They are as enriching as she, creams, lotions, gels and soaps are full of vitamins and botanicals that leave the skin feeling soft, refreshed and pampered. These unique products are sold at specialty gift shops and we are proud to carry this exclusively as our bath and body line offering of choice. Realizing that body products are such a personal choice the fragrances offered are so light and refreshing that as a stand alone gift or coupled with a tea and cookies or chocolate lovers type arrangement we've created a well rounded package for the most important women in your life. Smell the freshly fallen Rain, Southern Magnolia or the sweetness of Peach Blossom, all Annabelle Bearden products are salon tested. The entire line of products offers a truly inspirational tribute to women whether we're honoring them, saying Thank You or just pampering them. -- Bruce H. Kubec
